

What is Involved to Join Organo Gold Coffee?

1) There is a $49.00 starter kit fee which includes training materials, a website, and samples of the coffee. There are no monthly charges and there is an annual renewal fee of $25.00 annually.

2) What package is best to join Organo Gold with? That will depend on what your reason is for joining Organo Gold. Here are your choices:

OG Business Pack $49.00 - is required to join OG. If you only want to buy your coffee at wholesale prices instead of retail, then this package is for you. It comes with the Business Kit, product samples, 1 year back office and replicating website. There are no boxes of coffee in the kit, please order what you want to start with while joining.

OG Bronze Beverage Pack $150.00 - Pack Content Includes 2-Gourmet Black 2-Gourmet Mocha 2-Gourmet Latte 1-Hot Chocolate 1-Green Tea (150CV/200QV) This is a starter package that contains only 8 boxes of coffee, that is not very much when considering that you will be drinking some, passing out samples to advertise your business, and you will be selling some boxes at retail. If this is all you can afford right now, then get started here. The company is nice enough to give you 60 days to upgrade to a higher package by just paying the difference in price. This also pays you up to $500 a week at 10% of your dual team lesser legs volume.

OG Silver Pack $450.00 - Pack Content 4-Gourmet Black 2-Gourmet Mocha 4-Gourmet Latte 2-Hot Chocolate 1-Green Tea 1-Ganoderma 1-Mycelium 1-Spores 1-Grapeseed 1-G3 Soap (400CV/500QV) - This is also a good choice, it gives you enough coffee to get your business started. This also pays you up to $1500 a week at 15% of your dual team lesser legs volume.

OG Gold Pack $1245.00 - Pack Content 15-Gourmet Black 10-Gourmet Mocha 15-Gourmet Latte 6-Hot Chocolate 6-GreenTea 3-Ganoderma 2-Mycelium 2-Spores 2-Grapeseed 2-G3 Soaps (875CV/1300QV) - This is the best choice and the way I started the coffee business, it is for those who are committed to build a strong coffee business. It gives you enough coffee to have some to drink, sample, sell at retail, and get your new distributors started the day they join the business. This also pays you up to $2500 a week at 20% of your dual team lesser legs volume. As you can see that 20% pay is twice the rate of 10% pay for the same amount of work, wouldn't you rather make 20% right now? Don't leave money on the table that you could be earning yourself.

3) Monthly auto-ship is optional: If you only wish to buy at wholesale, you may order whenever you wish to. However, if you are building an Organo Gold business, the monthly auto-ship or a wholesale order is required in order to get paid a commission check. The minimum order is $50PV (personal Volume). This can be achieved by ordering the auto-shipment pack that includes a box of black, latte, and mocha (OG 3 Pack). If you are joining with the Silver or Gold package, you will need to be ordering 100PV a month. That can be an OG 6 Pack or any mix totaling 100PV or more. You can setup the automatic shipment to be sent on the 1st or the 15th of the month, and you can cancel or change the order at any time before it is shipped to you. I order a 30 box case every month and shipping is free on case orders.

4) Because of the potential of earning commissions by joining Organo Gold Coffee, IRS tax laws require that you supply a social security number or TIN (taxpayers Identification Number), Also your date of birth is needed because it is against the law for anyone under 18 years of age to join. Another benefit of starting a coffee business in the US is that it can qualify you for a home office tax credit.

5) Organo Gold will take care of all orders placed on your personal website, they will collect the order, process the credit card and ship the order to your customer, and then once a week they will send you a check for the commission earned on that retail sale. That is the retail price less the wholesale cost of the product. If pays to refer customers to Organo Gold. If you decide to expand your customer base by helping others to join Organo Gold, you will also be paid a commission on the work that they do in the business. The back office of the free website keeps track of all your business and commissions for you, nothing to worry about; no reports need to be submitted by you in order to get paid.
